

Dear Parent/Carer,

20th June 2018

I am writing to you to confirm arrangements for year 12 students from now until the end of the academic year. These are as follows:

- Thursday 21st June: UCAS Convention in school
 - All Y12 are expected to attend this trip. Transport is provided by 6th Form
- Monday 25th June – Tuesday 3rd July: Year 12 exams begin.
 - A level students begin study leave. BTEC students attend lessons as normal.
- Wednesday 27th June – Geography trip
 - Exams missed will be rescheduled for the earliest available opportunity that week.
- Wednesday 4th, Thursday 5th July
 - Exam catch up
- Friday 6th July
 - All Year 12 students attend school from 8.45am to complete UCAS Personal Statements and/or CVs. EPQ students begin 'taught skills' course
- Monday 9th – Friday 13th July: Work experience week:
 - Students without an arranged placement or prior arrangement (e.g. Leeds Politics Festival, EPQ, FA L1 Football Coaching, Harrogate Hospital placement etc) must attend school as normal from 8.45am each day
- Monday 16th – Friday 20th July: All Y12 students return
 - Exam results available at 8.45am on Monday 16th July
 - Lessons run as normal and will include
 - Debrief of papers, marks, grades
 - Individual subject progress interviews with each student
 - Work set to fill gaps, course content
 - Summer work set to prepare students for Year 13

Students may be asked to resit exam papers where significantly below target/lack of revision evident.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions regarding these arrangements.

Yours sincerely,

Mr M Brennan
